Original Oil
On Canvas
by Jeremy Bortz

Artist Jeremy Bortz will transform a blank canvas into a work of art in front of your very eyes. Actor Jodie Foster owns some of his work, and now you can too.

The multi-talented Bortz was born in Johannesburg, South Africa and came to Canada in 1999. While in South Africa, he majored in art and pursued a career in painting, photography and framing.

Well known for his innovative and creative framing solutions, Bortz owns Frame Concepts on Yonge Street. His love of vibrant expression and colour is evident in his work, which is primarily acrylic on canvas.

Today one guest will be the lucky recipient of a Jeremy Bortz original. Each place setting will have a disk with his work; one of those disks will be a winner!

Value: $2,800
