Jeremy Bortz of Frame Concepts is an artist and a golfer!

Known as JEM, artist Jeremy Bortz is fast becoming known as a philanthropist. At present he is raising money for Sick Kids—and has so far reached $24,000 (half way to his goal) from the sale of his paintings. His next charitable project is a live performance on October 29th, at the Royal York Hotel to raise funds for the Leukemia Fund.

JEM's paintings are best described as bright and expressive—kind of like his personality, and brings any wall to life!

JEM has recently sold paintings to Jodie Foster and AOL/Warner Bros Canada.

Our sincere thanks to JEM for the donation of one of his latest paintings to our auction.
